Wayne Street Homebound Ministry is collecting slipper socks for the residents at Otterbein. They will put them in bags for the residents along with other goodies and pass these out on Christmas Day.

We need men and women's slipper socks with grippers on the bottom of the socks for safety. You might consider getting diabetic socks with grippers too.

Please place the slipper socks in the basket located in the Fellowship Hall. The deadline is December 15th. Thank you so much for your helping with this ministry.

ADVENT SPECIAL EVENTS

How does 30 minutes of quiet sound? We are offering you our sanctuary during Advent season for that exact purpose. The sanctuary will be open with some background music playing Tuesdays 8:30-9:00 pm, Wednesday 6:30-7:00 am, and Thursday 12:30-1:00 pm. During that time, we will scroll prayer requests on the screen. You are welcome to pray silently for those requests or pray about anything else on your heart. There will be no talking or distractions, and phones must be turned off. The quiet time will begin at the scheduled time and at the end, the screens will be turned off and participants can leave when they are ready. This experience will not be for everyone because it will be complete silence except for the background music. This is to be a relief from the crazy pace of life and give you a chance to enjoy your beautiful sanctuary in a way we don't often get to enjoy it.

A new Wednesday night small group will run Wednesday evenings from Dec 1-22, led by Amber Joy Daniels. Amber has helped hundreds of women find their place in destiny. Her role as a clarifying voice has helped many individuals to make pivotal shifts that helped them reach their individual goals. Currently a doctoral candidate in the Organizational Studies Leadership program at Wright State University, Amber holds an M.S. in Leadership Development from the same institution as well as a BSc. in Human Resources from the University of the Southern Caribbean. A former radio personality and educator, Amber is a highly sought after motivational speaker at international events for women, teens and young adults. The small group will be studying her book Destiney Survivor, which is a fictional story based on the Biblical book of Ruth. This experience begins on Wednesday, Dec 1 at 6:30, right after supper, served starting at 5:45.
